

7 December 2022
ETAF Conference
VAT goes digital
– the tax practitioners' perspective

@ NH EU Berlaymont Hotel,
Bd Charlemagne 11/19, 1000 Brussels

The European Commission will present on 7 December 2022 a package of proposals to modernise VAT reporting obligations and facilitate e-invoicing, update the VAT rules for the platform economy and introduce a single VAT registration in the EU. ETAF is delighted to invite you to discuss with the Commission and tax professionals how these new measures will affect our profession and what are their expected benefits.

14:00 - Welcome coffee

14:30 - Opening remarks by Philippe Arraou, ETAF President

14:35 - Keynote speech from Patrice Pillet, Head of Unit VAT, DG TAXUD, European Commission

14:50 - Panel discussion moderated by Elodie Lamer, Journalist for Tax Notes:

- Patrice Pillet, Head of Unit VAT, DG TAXUD, European Commission
- Dr. Stefanie Becker, Tax Adviser, ETAF representative in the Commission's VAT expert group
- Olivier Hody, Tax Adviser ITAA, Deloitte Global Tax Center Europe, Assistant Professor at ULB

15:55 - Concluding remarks by Philippe Arraou, ETAF President

16:00 - Small reception

Simultaneous interpretation EN-FR-DE
The conference will be livestreamed on ETAF social media